OUR AIMS:

- ❖ To teach Jain religion to our children and adults to help them make difficult decisions between "right" and "wrong" or when challenged by peer pressure.
- ❖ To teach Jain values relevant to today's society to our children.
- ❖ To train students, graduated from the School, to teach as youth teachers.

WHO IS THE SCHOOL FOR AND HOW IS IT RUN?

- ❖ The School is run on Friday evenings and run free of charge
- ❖ Children are divided into classes by age, from 5-16 years old
- ❖ All the teaching is in English delivered by highly trained and dedicated teachers
- ❖ Each class has a syllabus which is progressive from year to year
- ❖ Teaching is varied, using lectures, stories, games, plays, workshops, debates and discussions
- ❖ We encourage children to discuss and debate to crystallise their understanding of our religion
- ❖ End of term assemblies showcase the talents of the children

ADULT CLASSES

Adult classes - the largest in London - are run in English and Gujarati and the focus is on Jain philosophy and practice - these classes are open to all, young and old.
