

ANNUAL REPORT 2016

COMPASSIONATE
CRUSADERS TRUST

From the ethical point of view, no one can escape responsibility with the excuse that he is only an individual, on whom the fate of the world does not depend. Not only can this not be known objectively for certain, because it is always possible that it will depend precisely on the individual, but this kind of thinking is also made impossible by the very essence of ethics, by conscience and the sense of responsibility.

~ Georg Lukacs

ANNUAL REPORT 2016

At Compassionate Crusaders we get active guidance from Gautama Buddha, who said “I never see what has been done; I only see what remains to be done,”

Non-human liberation movement has always been dominated by 99% heart, 01% brain. Thus allowing the “brainy” exploiters easy option of a ‘pass by’ and continue their vile act, more often to their own peril and to that of the generations to come. For them buck stops nowhere.

Before CCT came into being, awareness about environment, animal rights, related human health issues were all quite vague and sporadic in our country. Now some of them have been accepted through legislation by our own country and even other civilized nations. Some more have reached the highest level of judiciary and the religious & community leaders.

The 17-year-old gorilla named Harambe was shot dead by Cincinnati zoo staff, who ‘feared for the boy’s life’ after he was pulled around by Harambe when the boy accidentally fell into his enclosure.

Shaktiman was a gelding which served the Uttarakhand Police force. Shaktiman was brutally attacked and subsequently succumbed to that injury. This incident created a huge uproar from citizens, worldwide. Experts across the globe offered to help Shaktiman so that he can recover soon.

These two incidents covered widely by the media exemplified a ripple of compassion individually or institutionally among the general public as a result of our activity. Now global society accepts Compassionate Crusaders' contention that, atrocities on human is tried under the law as "crime on human society" whereas atrocities on 'mutes' is considered as breach of humanity.

Over the years, quite a few of CCT's humane ideas have spread evenly all across the country, some even globally.

Animals can only love and trust you or they can, at the most, fear you, hatred is alien to the animal world. This July 1st, a compassionate Calcutta couple, Swapna & Pankaj Kayal have arranged to plant a tree in memory of Souryadipta, their only son who left them on this day in 1994, in a tragic road accident. They felt Karuna Kunj is a rare place which has a "only love, no hatred" vive which is so much of a need of the hour in this strife stricken world full of hatred amongst humans.

"You all are doing God's work. The pain you see in them and help them to reduce it, is a great job. One has to have deep commitment for the work you all are doing." Dr. Manu Chandaria, our Patron and an illustrious philanthropist in his own right, wrote back after visiting our activity hubs.

This appreciative comment reminded me of Mother Teresa's saying "Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love."

Mother Teresa will be declared a Saint on 4th September this year. Earlier on 10th December, 1979. She was conferred with the Nobel Peace Prize for her unforgettable work for the poor & distressed people.

We, in Compassionate Crusaders, have treasured remembrances of Mother. Our Trust was launched on November, 1993 and I was fortunate enough to meet her personally and get her blessings on the subsequent New Year's Day, 1994. "Let us remember that Animals are god's creatures and we must use them for the purpose for which they are created... Let us be god's love to all we meet.", Mother wrote in her message of blessings.

Another small step forward this year is CCT's initiation of Army Animals' retirement. We recall with all humility how WB Police Horses' retirement was also initiated by CCT, providing peaceful retirement home to start with. Now police authorities In both Kolkata & State provide for post retirement rehabilitation of their Dogs & Horses.

Along with common Calcuttans who are by and large kind, one major achievement of Compassionate Crusaders have been in changing the attitude of the 'authorities'! Kolkata is unique in one humane aspect, here Army, Airport & Police have been taking our help & guidance in 'humanely' solving all animal related issues & problems.

We believe in Gandhiji's words, "Even if you're in a minority of one, truth is always the truth".

You need regular sign-posts if you're to find your way along life's journey. Let me randomly quote some media headlines.

CCT's stand on complete 'unacceptability' of subjugation of animals under any pretext is vindicated almost every day. The unfortunate incident with Heramba, the Gorilla has brought CCT's stand on 'caged zoo' in to focus. Cages are meant for stopping animals from coming out but not for stopping visitors from entering them. There is a serious need for considering CCT's idea of reverse zoos where visitors are guided through secured tunnels with animals and birds roaming free all around.

Another most recent incident of rescue of performing animals from a circus. Animal welfare organizations rescued 22 animals from the premises of Rambo Circus at the PWD Grounds in Sangvi, Maharashtra following a night-long operation. Circus authorities, however, opposed the action and claimed that it was illegal. The animals, including 4 elephants, 4 horses and 14 dogs, were moved to rescue facilities.

CCT has been one of the first, in mid 1990s, to raise the issue of exploitation of human ‘performers’ in circuses. Most of the children (even a majority of the adults) are virtual bonded workers; devoid of basic insurance, post retirement benefits, even ‘protection’ in case of permanent disability due to injury during a performance. Taking cue from CCT, Circus artistes in Kerala from 2015 have been brought under medical insurance by the Kerala Sangeetha Nataka Akademi. The artistes would be entitled to Rs 1 lakh in case of hospitalisation and Rs 1,000 per week till discharge.

Dripping in of active compassion, an idea CCT floated more than a decade back, to curb animal sacrifice and suggestions on ‘blood donation camps’ to replace ‘ritual of dripping blood’ is catching up, even in remote villages. During the last autumn festivals the District Magistrate of Burdwan came out officially with a successful request to stop animal sacrifice by two of the biggest temple authorities in the district. Along with all our co-crusaders, the two faculty members of Harvard & Columbia Universities have hailed this move. Both these universities have post doctoral dissertations (thesis in local parlance) on the ritual of animal sacrifice, with detailed mention of CCT's humane effort to curb it.

CCT's vigilance against wildlife trade continues. Our anti-poaching drive and goading the appropriate authorities to regularly 'haul up' wild birds and turtles from the grey markets has become a 'routine', making a significant dent. Our volunteers from all walks of life have been ever vigilant.

Campaign against "cattle smuggling" is gaining momentum by the day. Our 10 year long interaction, person to person, from the highest officer to the rank & file of the Border Security Force(BSF), the valiant protectors of our nation's boundary, has been the key.

Amongst all the 'positive' effects of our campaign, we can not relent. "Every morning we are born again. What we do today is what matters most.", the words of Gautama Buddha can not be more emphasized as the following incidents prove.

Wat Pha Luang Ta Bua, popularly known as Tiger Temple, being run by Buddhist Monks was raided by the authorities in Thailand, discovered 40 dead tiger cubs in a freezer at the Tiger Temple, which is being investigated for wildlife trafficking.

Officials in the Southeast Asian country made the macabre find as they corralled and captured more than 130 surviving adult tigers at the tourist destination west of Bangkok.

The Wildlife Conservation Office said that the tigers were being mistreated, and have begun taking control of them from the Buddhist monks who run the centre.

All in the name of Buddha, the ultimate compassionate crusader.

A similar faux pas in 2008 on the part of the Animal Welfare Board of India(AWBI), in publishing an advertisement celebrating Animal Welfare Fortnight to uphold Gandhiji's message of Ahimsa; 'sponsored' by Animal Skin Traders. This was also in the name of Gandhiji and his land of Ahimsa CCT's immediate refusal to accept 'blood money' as grants from AWBI, even returning the grant in 2008 is hailed by all right thinking people and our support base has grown ever since!

Apart from our Patron, who came all the way from Nairobi, other eminent visitors, namely members of Bhowanipore Rotary Club, led by their President, Mrs. Tapati Sengupta, Mr. Neil & Mrs. Nicola Bhattacharjee from Reading, UK, Mr. Sukriti Chakraborty from Pune have encouraged our boys at Karuna Kunj with their guidance and help.

There are regular young visitors & volunteers to cheer the 'mutes' in our care.

We mention with gratitude, the kind gesture of the Hastings Chapel authorities for allowing us to park our Water Tanker for the animals round the year. This year however along with our Bajaj Trax Ambulance we have shifted the tanker to our fledgling Howrah unit as Kolkata Municipal Corporation has constructed a large "water hole" for the maidan ponies.

As a mark of respect to his fond memory, a friend's family has facilitated in creating ASHIS BHATTACHARYA MEMORIAL FUND with the Compassionate Crusaders Trust, as a corpus fund to support our 'care-givers of the mutes' in their effort in initiating primary education/ further studies for their children. This helps in creating a new generation of compassionate citizens, a dream Ashis had nurtured! To fruitfully continue to regard Ashis' memory, from 2015-16 all the children of our non-executive staff members are being supported through a monthly direct deposit in the beneficiary's (child) bank account by way of recurring deposit for each child till he/she reaches the age of eighteen. This is to facilitate their career building as they become adults. It may be noted here, that some of the children are "first generation school goers."

Three years on, Compassionate Crusaders' Centre for Animal Welfare, popular as Tollygunge Clinic has had a complete makeover with additional facilities for treatment of the 'mutes' in cool comfort; thanks to the generous support from the compassionate calcuttan couple, Mr. Subrato & Mrs. Subhra Ghosh. We continue to enhance the time and quality of treatment further, at our Clinic, a favorite of the caring animal lovers of our city. A new direct call facility to the clinic is introduced, for the benefit of the caring animal lovers. This is in addition to our 24x7 animal helpline.

Karuna Kunj also has had a sparkling makeover, "is one of the cleanest gardens ever"...to quote a journalist from the Times of India. Most significantly our staff there has been instrumental in implementation and maintenance of the upgraded facility. We have been adding to the facilities (a rock garden this year) for fun-relief for the residents of Karuna Kunj. Our Lily-pool & the Doggy-Kitty shower, unique in the country, continue to comfort them during oppressive summer heat.

Karuna Kunj cattery has become a Feline Disney Land, thanks To The Calcutta Construction Company, that has sponsored the extension of the Cattery. The Saturday Club's kind donation of the play-things like Jungle Gym, Slide, Swing for the enjoyment of the cats have acted like the icing on the cake!

Karuna Kunj pet-burial continues to offer dignified farewell to the departed 'mute members the family'. The 'Memorial to Every Loving Pet' stands in all its gracious serenity, with the touching poem that brings a lump to all animal lovers' throat! Now a solar powered lamp post, courtesy Mr. Pradip Mitra, brightens the serene space. Green Pet-Burial Society, UK has opted for a affiliation with Karuna Kunj. Our recyclable pet-burial idea is spreading in human communities globally.

Sheru Singh Memorial is a piece of green & flowers in memory of Sheru, the departed pet of Kohli family. They wrote "Thank you so very much in assisting us to realize the power of love. We were so blessed to learn and share Sheru's love and compassion with many more souls than ever imagined. It is truly an honor to work with you and your staff in Kolkatta. We are all related through love, a bond that is eternal. Sincerely", Veena, Honey, and Ruchi Kohli., Maryland, USA.

Most regretfully, Mrs. Veena Kohli has left us for 'heaven' or where ever the 'mutes', closest to her tender heart, go for eternal union.

Sputnik's Garden is an interesting addition to the rich greenery of Karuna Kunj, where about 80 varieties of trees and plants are recorded and documented. An area earmarked as a nursery of saplings and existing trees of about 50 varieties are nurtured in Sputnik's Garden. The saplings are multiplied regularly for free distribution to the children for greening the community. The garden along with the basic maintenance of the greenery, water body, Lilly pool etc. at Karuna Kunj are sponsored fully by Sputnik's family.

Sputnik's friend, our longtime volunteer Bhaswati (Pinky) Pande's Sputnik's Garden range of gift items under her own brand Smile & Mile's continues to bring smiles and spreading the message of compassion and supporting the 'mutes'.

Sputnik has been a pioneer in utilizing social media for a sustained campaign. "For equality he stood which we all agree, For animals everywhere, the right to be free. A tiny crusader, sent to earth from above, To teach us respect, compassion and love, For animals big and creatures so small, Domesticated wild, we must love them all." Wrote Mrs. Heather-mae Celins of Chelsea (Victoria), Australia as a tribute to my global-campaigner chihuahua, Sputnik Sylvells Mickeys Mustard. He "charmed" 5000 friends from all the continents (the maximum permitted by Facebook) in a span of 215 days, starting on Sep 20, 2009. His campaign stories are published internationally, in print & newsportals even in Portugese, Russian & many other languages. "Very interesting idea. Thanks Manu. Fred" ...the note in Feb 2010 from Dr. Fred Oregon, President of the International Fund for Animal Welfare, USA (IFAW) to our present Patron, Dr. Manu Chandaria sums up the Sputnik's impact as a Tiny Crusader.

Now to the resource aspects. CCT sails through making best use of available resource, coming mostly from caring Calcuttans.

This year too, like last seven years, we have had no financial help from the Government, either central or state, nor related resources like “Local Area Development Fund”. By sheer improved financial management and optimum utilization of resources, yet again we have improved on our balance sheet without any financial liability.

This year we have been successful in enhancing our Project Expenditure by about 2% over our last year’s 77%; this in spite of increased expenditure on salary etc. CCT staff members are also adequately ‘compensated’ with additional service charges to meet the living cost.

Continuing on the positive trend of last six years, CCT has achieved a zero liability in this financial year 2015-16 also. Plainly speaking, no unpaid bills, whatsoever!

In addition we have put our allowable corpus as fixed deposit to sail through any rough weather so that the mutes in our care and their care-givers never feel the pinch of the happenings at large. All these are achieved by the dedicated and matured handling of the affairs by our wonderful young team.

Help has come, mostly, from the goodwill and support of the people of Kolkata, a city famous for its warmth and kindness. We salute calcuttans for their attitude and awareness, and recognize the vital role they play in the success of our endeavors.

Most importantly, we have never compromised on the quality of our service to the poor suffering animals of our city and elsewhere, which is after all the very reason for our existence.

Most humbly we dedicate this achievement to the compassionate souls across the globe, who have been our supporters since Compassionate Crusaders started out on its journey in November 1993 with a corpus of only One Thousand Rupees.

Fellow calcuttans, Mr. Mohi Ranjan Halder and Rao sisters Uma & Lalita continue to be genuine supporters for the mutes, year after year.

I take this opportunity to offer some necessary clarification regarding our Report on Activity & Financial status.

Donors & Supporters - as it would be next to impossible to mention our innumerable donors in cash & kind, we mention donors of Rs.5000 & above, or regular donors of smaller amounts. As also those who help in raising and maintenance of infrastructure and facilities for the animals in our care. Other supporters mentioned, include all well meaning individuals/groups/corporates who give us continuous logistic support and lend their expertise on the relevant issues in the course of our crusade for compassion.

Statement of Accounts - some more clarification regarding our Statement of Accounts which reflects our financial activity. Statement of Accounts is prepared and duly audited, more in the format of the statutory requirement of the law of the land. At the first glance some expenditure may stare back at the beholder. As the 'bills' raised by essential services like telephone, electricity, fuel, vehicle repairs (mostly) have to be paid directly from the trust fund.

That apart there are varied expenditure which are directly settled by the donors, including food, medicines, infrastructure, maintenance which are never reflected in the 'financial' report. Whereas the assets created as well as fund saved by the 'direct' fund givers can not be reflected in the financial report either.

Transparency is our keyword, like previous years we are posting the financial and activity report on our website.

The truncated approach and a myopic focus of the human race are resulting in our losing humane values. The lives of millions of humans in developing countries can be improved substantially by preventing the source of the disease instead of spending several times more to cure the diseased people after they have been infected.

CCT's zoonotic concerns are getting real by the day. The latest being the Zika Virus, Discovered in 1947 in the Zika Forest in Uganda when an Rhesus monkey contacted an unknown febrile illness. Zika is an Arbovirus, as dengue, yellow fever, Japanese encephalitis, West Nile, and Saint-Louis encephalitis viruses. Doctors warned Rio Olympics should be moved due to health fears.

Over 30,000 people are reported to die of Rabies in India each year. Roughly 36% of the world's rabies deaths occur in India each year. 40% of people who are bitten by suspect rabid animals are children under 15 years of age. Other common zoonotic diseases are T.B., Anthrax, Diphtheria, Encephalitis, Hepatitis, Leptospirosis, Cholera, Plague, chronic stomach ailments due to worms and many more.

There are over 40 zoonotic diseases of which animals are carriers. The lives of millions of humans in developing countries can be improved substantially by preventing the source of the disease instead of spending several times more to cure the diseased people after they have been afflicted. Most of the people affected by zoonotic diseases are from the lower income groups. If the person affected is the bread earner, the whole family is ruined by the illness or death.

The regular pandemic of different zoonotic disease is a grim warning of the consequences of neglecting the importance of animal welfare.

Philanthropists and social workers (including the medical fraternity) seldom realize that to help the health and economy of a society, it is vital to focus on preventive (rather than curative) health care.

Diseases spread through earth, water, food and air. Even the milk of a diseased cow has ill-effects. A baby born to an emaciated mother who has worms can be born with brain damage. Instead of spending countless millions, can't we do some judicious planning to reduce the need for curing people; taking steps to keep them healthy instead.

The media has been extremely supportive even though we could never offer them any thing other than our sincerity for the cause of compassion. As Mahatma Gandhi said, "Mother Earth has enough for everybody's need but there can never be enough for everybody's greed." I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the media personnel whose innate sensitivity and skillful pens and cameras voiced needs of the mutes and the Compassionate Crusaders' endeavor in creating a kinder world.

The Hindustan Times' daily publication of Compassionate Crusaders' Animal Helpline is a real boon. As also The Telegraph's coverage of our emergency pet care in their Metro Guide. Many pets have benefited by this action of theirs.

The Animal lovers of Kolkata can boast of their city being the only METRO CITY in the country to have a 24 Hour “ANIMAL HELPLINE” in two prominent dailies!

Our regular activity update, including pictures will be available at the Facebook profile “Compassionate Crusaders Trust” which has enhanced its following by 500% or five times since it was launched four years back; along with related Blogs and Youtube channel, “ANIMALCRUSADER” created and maintained by our E-team.

From 2015, we have started using e-media like Whats App for sending live photos to the owners/rescuers as also people who are unable to accompany their departed pets in our Hearse van.

This year we have planned to show our shelter & pet memorial activities through “live streaming” for the benefit of the pet owners concerned; over a period of time we aspire to make it available for all our animal loving friends.

We will continue to post our year long activity details and audited accounts on our Website and Facebook. Both the Facebook www.facebook.com/animalcrusaders & the Website www.animalcrusaders.org display the Videos of some of our activities apart from regularly updated photographs... we hope to keep on adding more!
